

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY P H I L I P P I N E S

OFFICE ORDER NO. 61
Series of 2011

SUBJECT: RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR IPOPHL ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS

Pursuant to the directive under E.O. No. 523 for all departments, agencies, and government owned and controlled corporations, under the executive branch to promote and encourage the use of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) as part of the practice in resolving disputes filed before them, and also to the authority of the Director General of the Intellectual Property Office of the Philippines under Sec.7.1 of Republic Act No. 8293, also known as the Intellectual Property Code of the Philippines, the Rules of Procedure for IPOPHL Arbitration Proceedings, are hereby promulgated.

Introduction

Arbitration is a legal technique for the resolution of disputes outside the courts, wherein the parties refer the dispute to one or more persons by whose decision they agree to be legally bound. Its objective is the final disposition of disputes in a speedy and inexpensive way. In the Philippines, arbitration began to develop with the passing of the Arbitration Law (R.A. No. 876). This development was immediately followed by the country's accession to the 1958 New York Convention. Fifty years after the enactment of the Arbitration Law, Congress enacted Republic Act No. 9285, otherwise known as the Alternative Disputes Resolution Act of 2004. This Act specifically articulated the policy of the state "to actively promote party autonomy in the resolution of disputes or the freedom of the parties to make their own arrangements to resolve their disputes" and "encourage and actively promote the use of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) as an important means to achieve speedy and impartial justice and declog court dockets."

The IPOPHL has responded to the challenge of establishing a complete ADR system through the establishment of an arbitration mechanism in cooperation with the World Intellectual Property Organization and the Philippine Dispute Resolution Center, Inc. (the leading institutionalized Arbitration Center in the Philippines). As a result, the final IPOPHL Arbitration Rules was drafted in cooperation with a local and international experts including Dean Custodio O. Parlade (one of the leading Filipino international arbitrator), Atty. Victor P. Lazatin (PDRCI), Atty. Salvador S. Panga, Jr. (PDRCI), Atty. Lope R. Manuel, Jr. (IPOPHL), Professor Gwen B. Grecia-De Vera (UP Law Center and PDRCI), Ms Sarah Theurich (WIPO) and Mr. Ignacio De Castro (Deputy Director of Arbitration and Mediation Center of WIPO).

Section 15

(a) If the parties have agreed on a procedure for the appointment of the arbitrator or arbitrators different from the procedure provided under Section 16 to 20, that procedure shall be followed.

(b) If the Tribunal has not been established pursuant to such procedure within the period of time agreed upon by the parties or, in the absence of such an agreed period of time, within 30 days after the commencement of the arbitration, the Tribunal shall be established or completed, as the case may be, in accordance with Section 19.

(iii) Each party shall return the marked list to the Administering Body within 15 days after the date on which the list is received by it. Any party failing to return a marked list within that period of time shall be deemed to have assented to all candidates appearing on the list. If a party returns the list with all the candidates stricken out, subparagraph b(v) of this Section shall apply.

(iv) As soon as possible after receipt by it of the lists from the parties, or failing this, after the expiration of the period of time specified in the previous subparagraph, the Administering Body shall, taking into account the preferences and objections expressed by the parties, invite a person from the list to be the sole or presiding arbitrator.

(v) If the lists which have been returned do not show a person who is acceptable as arbitrator to both parties, the Administering Body shall be authorized to appoint the sole or presiding arbitrator. The Administering Body shall similarly be authorized to do so if a person is not able or does not wish to accept the Administering Body's invitation to be the sole or presiding arbitrator, or if there appear to be other reasons precluding that person from being the sole or presiding arbitrator, and there does not remain on the lists a person who is acceptable as arbitrator to both parties.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b), or in the case of multiple parties, where the multiple claimants or the multiple respondents shall fail to act jointly, the Administering Body shall be authorized to appoint the sole or presiding arbitrator if it determines in its discretion that the procedure described in that paragraph is not appropriate for the case.

circumstances that it considers give rise to justifiable doubt as to that arbitrator's impartiality or independence.

The notice of the challenge shall be in writing and shall clearly state the reasons for the challenge.

Response to the Challenge

Section 26

When an arbitrator has been challenged by a party, the other party shall have the right to respond to the challenge and shall, if it exercises this right, send, within 15 days after receipt of the notice referred to in Section 25, a copy of its response to the Administering Body, the party making the challenge and the arbitrators.

Such a decision is of an administrative nature and shall be final. The Administering Body shall not be required to state reasons for its decision.

b) If the challenge is sustained, a substitute arbitrator shall be appointed in accordance with the procedure in Sections 14 to 24 of these rules. The time limited provided in those rules shall commence from the date of the decision to sustain the challenge.

c) If the challenge is eventually dismissed, the arbitrator shall continue with the arbitration.

d) The Administering Body shall fix the cost of the challenge and may direct who and how such cost should be borne.

Section 32

At the request of a party or on its own motion, the Administering Body may release an arbitrator from appointment as arbitrator if the arbitrator has become de jure or de facto unable to fulfill, or fails to fulfill, the duties of an arbitrator. In such a case, the parties shall be offered the opportunity to express their views thereon and the provisions of Section 26 to 29 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Substitute Appointment

Section 33

(a) Whenever necessary, a substitute arbitrator shall be appointed pursuant to the procedure provided for in Sections 15 to 19 that was applicable to the appointment of the arbitrator being replaced.

(b) In the event that an arbitrator appointed by a party has either been successfully challenged on grounds which were known or should have been known to that party at the time of appointment, or has been released from appointment as arbitrator in accordance with Section 32, the Administering Body shall have the discretion not to permit that party to make a new appointment. If it chooses to exercise this discretion, the Administering Body shall make the substitute appointment.

(c) Pending the replacement, the arbitral proceedings shall be suspended, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

In determining whether to continue the arbitration or to render any award, order or other decision without the participation of an arbitrator, the two other arbitrators shall take into account the stage of the arbitration, the reason, if any, expressed by the third arbitrator for such non-participation, and such other matters as they consider appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(b) In the event that the two other arbitrators determine not to continue the arbitration without the participation of a third arbitrator, the Administering Body shall, on proof satisfactory to it of the failure of the arbitrator to participate in the work of the Tribunal, declare the office vacant, and a substitute arbitrator shall be appointed by the Administering Body in the exercise of the discretion defined in Section 33, unless the parties agree otherwise.

Objections to the Jurisdiction of the Tribunal

A plea that the Tribunal is exceeding the scope of its authority shall be raised as soon as the matter alleged to be beyond the scope of its authority is raised during the arbitral proceedings. The Tribunal may, in either case, admit a later plea if it considers the delay justified.

(d) The Tribunal may rule on a plea referred to in paragraph (c) as a preliminary question or, in its sole discretion, decide on such a plea in the final award.

(e) A plea that the Tribunal lacks jurisdiction shall not preclude the Administering Body from administering the arbitration.

If the Tribunal so determines, it shall decide under which conditions and to whom the confidential information may in part or in whole be disclosed and shall require any person to whom the confidential information is to be disclosed to sign an appropriate confidentiality undertaking.

- (d) The opinion of any expert on the issue or issues submitted to the expert shall be subject to the Tribunal's power of assessment of those issues in the context of all the circumstances of the case, unless the parties have agreed that the expert's determination shall be conclusive in respect of any specific issue.

V. ARBITRAL AWARDS

Applicable Substantive and Procedural Laws

Section 59

(a) The Tribunal shall decide the substance of the dispute in accordance with the law or rules of law chosen by the parties. Any designation of the law of a given State shall be construed, unless otherwise expressed, as directly referring to the substantive law of that State and not to its conflict of laws rules. Failing a choice by the parties, the Tribunal shall apply the law or rules of law that it determines to be appropriate. In all cases, the Tribunal shall decide having due regard to the terms of any relevant contract and taking into account applicable trade usages. The Tribunal may decide as amiable compositeur or ex aequo et bono only if the parties have expressly authorized it to do so.

(b) The law applicable to the arbitration shall be the arbitration law of the place of arbitration, unless the parties have expressly agreed on the application of another arbitration law and such agreement is permitted by the law of the place of arbitration.

(c) An Arbitration Agreement shall be regarded as effective if it conforms to the requirements concerning form, existence, validity and scope of either the law or rules of law applicable in accordance with paragraph (a), or the law applicable in accordance with paragraph (b).

Interest

(b) Unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties, the Tribunal may award simple or compound interest to be paid by a party on any sum awarded against that party. It shall be free to determine the interest at such rates as it considers to be appropriate as justified by the submission of a party and/or the parties, without being bound by legal rates of interest; and shall be free to determine the period for which the interest shall be paid, as justified by the submission of a party and/or the parties.

Section 62

(b) The award shall be in writing and shall state the date on which it was made, as well as the place of arbitration in accordance with Section 39(a).

(c) The award shall state the reasons on which it is based, unless the parties have agreed that no reasons should be stated and the law applicable to the arbitration does not require the statement of such reasons.

(d) The award shall be signed by the arbitrator or arbitrators. The signature of the award by a majority of the arbitrators, or, in the case of Section 61, second sentence, by the presiding arbitrator, shall be sufficient. Where an arbitrator fails to sign, the award shall state the reason for the absence of the signature.

(e) The Tribunal shall send the draft award for scrutiny by the Administering Body with regard to matters of form and substance but only to ensure the enforceability of the award. The Arbitral Tribunal shall have the sole authority and discretion to decide on whether or not to accept the suggestions of the Administering Body.

(f) The award shall be communicated by the Tribunal to the Administering Body in a number of originals sufficient to provide one for each party, the arbitrator or arbitrators and the Administering Body. The Administering Body shall formally communicate an original of the award to each party and the arbitrator or arbitrators.

(g) At the request of a party, the Administering Body shall provide it, at cost, with a copy of the award certified by the Administering Body. A copy so certified shall be deemed to comply with the requirements of Article IV(1)(a) of the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards, New York, June 10, 1958.

(h) Before signing any Award, the Arbitral Tribunal shall submit it in draft form to the IPOPHL Arbitration Office. The IPOPHL Arbitration Office may lay down modifications as to the form of the Award and, without affecting the Arbitral Tribunal's liberty of decision, may also draw its attention to points of substance.

Time Period for Delivery of the Final Award

Section 63

(a) The arbitration should, wherever reasonably possible, be heard and the proceedings declared closed within not more than eight months after either the delivery of the Statement of Defense or the establishment of the Tribunal, whichever event occurs later. The final award should, wherever reasonably possible, be made within three months thereafter.

(b) If the proceedings are not declared closed within the period of time specified in paragraph (a), the Tribunal shall send the Administering Body a status report on the arbitration, with a copy to each party. It shall send a further status report to the Administering Body, and a copy to each party, at the end of each ensuing period of three months during which the proceedings have not been declared closed.

(c) If the final award is not made within two months after the closure of the proceedings, the Tribunal shall send the Administering Body a written explanation for the delay, with a copy to each party. It shall send a further explanation, and a copy to each party, at the end of each ensuing period of one month until the final award is made.

Effect of Award

Section 64

(a) By agreeing to arbitration under these Rules, the parties undertake to carry out the award without delay, and waive their right to any form of appeal or recourse to a court of law or other judicial authority, insofar as such waiver may validly be made under the applicable law.

(b) The award shall be effective and binding on the parties as from the date it is communicated by the Administering Body pursuant to Section 62(f), second sentence.

(c) Within a reasonable timeframe upon receipt of the award from the Administering Body pursuant to Sections 62(f) and 65(d), the IPOPHL Arbitration Office shall assist in the enforcement of the award, pertaining to the IPOPHL, which the IPOPHL is able to do so under applicable legislation and regulations.

(b) Agreement to Settle. If, before the award is made, the parties agree on a settlement of the dispute, the Tribunal shall terminate the arbitration and, if requested jointly by the parties, record the settlement in the form of a consent award. The Tribunal shall not be obliged to give reasons for such an award.

(c) Unnecessary and Impossible. If, before the award is made, the continuation of the arbitration becomes unnecessary or impossible for any reason not mentioned in paragraph (b), the Tribunal shall inform the parties of its intention to terminate the arbitration. The Tribunal shall have the power to issue such an order terminating the arbitration, unless a party raises justifiable grounds for objection within a period of time to be determined by the Tribunal.

(d) Consent Award. The consent award or the order for termination of the arbitration shall be signed by the arbitrator or arbitrators in accordance with Article 62(d) and shall be communicated by the Tribunal to the Administering Body for scrutiny in accordance with Sections 62(e) and (h), in a number of originals sufficient to provide one for each party, the arbitrator or arbitrators and the Administering Body. If the Tribunal considers the request to be justified, it shall make the correction within 30 days after receipt of the request. Any correction, which shall take the form of a separate memorandum, signed by the Tribunal in accordance with Section 62(d), shall become part of the award.

(b) The Tribunal may correct any error of the type referred to in paragraph (a) on its own initiative within 20 days after the date of the award.

(c) A party may, within 20 days after receipt of the award, by notice to the Tribunal, with a copy to the Administering Body and the other party, request the Tribunal to make an additional award as to claims presented in the arbitral proceedings but not dealt with in the award. Before deciding on the request, the Tribunal shall give the parties an opportunity to be heard. If the Tribunal considers the request to be justified, it shall, wherever reasonably possible, make the additional award within 45 days of receipt of the request.

VI. FEES AND COSTS

Schedule of Fees

Section 67

The Tribunal's fees and the fees of the Administering Body shall be ascertained in accordance with the Schedule of Fees in force at the time of commencement of the arbitration.

Unquantifiable Claims

Section 68

Where the amount of the claim or the counterclaim is not quantifiable at the time payment is due, the Administering Body shall make a provisional estimate of the costs of the arbitration. This may be adjusted in light of such information as may subsequently become available. Where the claim per se is not quantifiable but the applicable law allows the award of a sum of money as indemnity, or alternative relief as in the case of a claim for specific performance, rescission, or annulment, the equivalent monetary award shall be the basis for determining the amount of the claim or counterclaim.

Fees of the Arbitrators

Section 69

(a) The fees of the Tribunal shall be reasonable. The amount and currency of the fees of the arbitrator and the modalities and timing of their payment shall be fixed by the Administering Body in consultations with the arbitrators and the parties taking into account the amount in dispute, the complexity of the subject matter, the time spent by the arbitrators and any other relevant circumstances

(b) In fixing the fees of the arbitrators, the Administering Body shall take into account the Schedule of Fees, applicable on the date on which the Administering Body has received the Request for Arbitration.

Section 70

The amount of the deposit and the period of time within which shall deposit shall be made shall be determined by the Administering Body.

(b) In the course of the arbitration, the Administering Body may require that the parties make supplementary deposits within such period indicated in the notice.

(c) If the required deposits are not paid in full within 30 days after receipt of the corresponding notification, the Administering Body shall so inform the parties in order that one or other of them may make the required payment.

(d) Where the Administering Body directs that payment of the deposit of costs of arbitration shall be made on a pro rata basis, the Administering Body in its discretion may establish two separate deposits on account of claim and counter-claim. If separate deposits are established, the totality of the deposit on account of claim shall be paid by the Claimant and the totality of the deposit on account of counter-claim shall be paid by the Respondent.

(e) If a party fails, within 15 days after a second reminder in writing from the Administering Body, to pay the required deposit, it shall be deemed to have withdrawn the relevant claim or counter-claim.

(g) If the arbitration is settled or disposed of without a hearing, the costs of arbitration shall be finally determined by the Administering Body. The Administering Body shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the stage of proceedings at which the arbitration is settled or disposed of. In the event that the costs of arbitration determined are less than the deposits made, there shall be a refund in such proportions as the parties may agree, or failing an agreement, in the same proportions as the deposits were made.

(b) The aforementioned costs shall, as far as possible, be debited from the deposits required under Section 70.

(c) The Tribunal shall, subject to any agreement of the parties, apportion the costs of arbitration and the registration and administration fees of the Administering Body between the parties in the light of all the circumstances and the outcome of the arbitration.

(b) For the purposes of this Section, a witness called by a party shall not be considered to be a third party. To the extent that a witness is given access to evidence or other information obtained in the arbitration in order to prepare the witness's testimony, the party calling such witness shall be responsible for the maintenance by the witness of the same degree of confidentiality as that required of the party.

Section 76

The award shall be treated as confidential by the parties and may only be disclosed to a third party if and to the extent that:

Continuing Obligation for Confidentiality

Section 77

(a) Unless the parties agree otherwise, the Administering Body and the arbitrator shall maintain the confidentiality of the arbitration, the award and, to the extent that they describe information that is not in the public domain, any documentary or other evidence disclosed during the arbitration, except to the extent necessary in connection with a court action relating to the award, or as otherwise required by law.
